Ok so i had depression problem for maybe 14-15 years. I have one daughter now and need help. I'm scared about her. Sometime it get bad for days and i dont get up. I tried everything. Sometimes i showered and dont get out for hours. Sometimes i sleep and dont get up. When i go around i feel like im dying or am dead now. I laid in bed in my towel today all day and didn't move and i cried. My daughter is only 2 yo and she cant live like that. I gave my food to her. Everything i have. I need help for her too. They want to take her. If they take her i will have nothing and my life will be over. Do you understand? I will die if they take her or if i am deport or in jail. I used to have husband and hes in a gang now and they will kill me if they find where i am. The cholo all want to kill me if they have me and my daughter will be taken too and i dont know what would happen when they take her. It would be worse than you can think. Im scared so i hide and dont want to move or go anywhere. Im tired. I have friends from the coyotaje boats still and they talk to me about medicines and help. ALl kinds of things. They told me about K and now i feel like its what i need and maybe that will help my daughter too. If u know where to find it please tell me because right now i need it. I know i am not very clear in english but maybe if we meet together you will know. I can bring my daughter maybe you like her

Good morning that works for me thank you so much you are saving me right now. I had such bad night and bad sleep i cant even think today. Everything feels like dark. I had nightmares about being taken and i felt they were true dreams. I remember them so clearly. This happens almost all nights now i think about dying or being taken away. When I was young i thought that a dream was the future talking to you, trying to help you. Maybe dreams are my past telling me what could be. I woke up and was crying because im afraid of what will happen and what could be. Because if they take me then i am dead and my daughter maybe dead. I felt so bad when i woke up at first but i am so happy now and its because of you. because i read your message. I used to cry in the morning every morning but now i hope and i want the day and to get better. Please please help me god help me. Where do you want to meet me, i can do here if you want. If live near the west mall 5th station above the 711.but i can go anywhere if that is what you need but i will need to bring rosetta thats my baby girl. I will come ok

Savannah, does your daughter live with you alone? We would like to have the chance to first have a quick chat over the phone. Or we can meet somewhere convenient, whichever is more comfortable for you. Basically, myself and my partners want to talk about your personal situation, your family life, and what we can do to make things better. Does that work for you?

You can bring a friend with you if that makes it easier.

13:31

Savannah, we are here to help. We can get you the therapy you need. We work with families like yours every day. That's why we reached out to you. Call if you can. 235-6760.
